

Title IX Advisor/ Support Person Agreement

By signing this Title IX Advisor/Support Person Agreement (“Agreement”), I agree that I understand the role of an Advisor and the role of a Support Person, as defined in the Student Conduct Procedures for Allegations of Prohibited Conduct under the University of California Policy on Sexual Violence and Sexual Harassment (“Procedures”). As stated in the Procedures, “[w]hile the Advisor may provide support, guidance, and advice to the Complainant or Respondent that the Advisor is accompanying, the Advisor may not speak on behalf of a student or otherwise actively participate in, or in any manner disrupt meetings or proceedings.” (See Procedures, I.A.).

Further, as stated in the Procedures, “[t]he role of the Support Person is only to provide support. The Support Person is not permitted to speak or otherwise participate in any meeting or proceeding that is part of the investigation or resolution process and may not in any manner disrupt any such meeting or proceeding.” (See Procedures, I.K.)

An Advisor and/or Support Person may overhear, learn or be given access to confidential student information (e.g., academic records, contact information, and health information). By signing this Agreement, the Advisor and/or Support Person agrees that he/she will not copy, distribute, post, alter, or make public any such information, and understands that this obligation continues after the completion of the investigation and appeal process outlined in the Procedures.

Further, I understand that should the Advisor and/or Support Person fail to adhere to his or her role as defined under the Procedures, the Advisor and/or Support Person may be excluded from meetings or proceedings.
